

Malik Woullard

Born and raised in Mississippi

Post

Private Contracting Sector
Quantitative Research Assistant
Washington, DC metro
malikwoullard@icloud.com

Training

American Economic Association Summer Training Program, advanced scholar, 4/4.0 gpa, completed Summer 2022

Howard University, COAS Honors Program, bachelors in economics along with mathematics minor and applied mathematics concentration, summa cum laude, conferred Spring 2022

Courses

single-variable, integral, & multivariable calculus, intro to analysis I, differential equations, intro to linear algebra, numerical analysis, probability and statistics II, intro to comp sci, adv research methods, adv microeconomics, econometrics II, maths for economists, industrial organization, economics of gender, economic development in Africa

Interests

stratification economics, applied microeconomics, public economics, political economy, time series analysis, experimental economics, international economics, mathematical economics, mixed methods, defense, personnel

Computing

LaTeX, Stata, Forecasting Analysis and Modeling Environment, R, Python, Dedoose

Working papers

“What is Behind Low Stock Market Participation Among Black Americans? A Decomposition Exercise with Evidence from the 2019 Survey of Consumer Finances”

Past work

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, Division of Research and Statistics, Research Assistant, 08/22 to 02/23.

Howard University Department of Mathematics, research experience for undergraduates (REU), participant, 08/21 to 05/22.

Howard University Department of Economics, research experience for undergraduates (REU), participant, 01/22 to 05/22.

Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Money and Payment Studies Function, Summer Analyst, 06/21 to 08/21.

Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Research Department, Research Intern, 06/20 to 12/20.

University of California at Davis, Center for Poverty and Inequality Research, SPREE Fellow, 06/20 to 08/20; 06/21 to 08/21.

Presentations

What Explains Low Stock Market Participation Among Black Americans? Evidence from the Survey of Consumer Finances, HBS Brown Bag, The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, September 2022

Impact of Foreign Direct Investment on Imports and Exports of Sub-Saharan Economies (with A. Mbaye), AEASP, Howard University, July 2022

What Explains Low Stock Market Participation Among Black Americans? Evidence from the Survey of Consumer Finances, Research Month, Howard University, April 2022

In-Host HIV Modeling (with J. Francis, D. Martinez & N. Rankin), Math Club, Howard University, April 2022

Aggregate Recruiting Intensity: A Novel Data Collection Effort (with Dr. C. Macaluso), RA Lunch, The Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, September 2020

Stock Market Participation and the Role of Financial Literacy, Econ 181, Howard University, Spring 2020

Associations

National Economic Association, currently Student Member

American Economic Association, currently Student Member

Women's Institute for Science, Equity, and Race, currently Inclusive, Peer, Onsite, & Distance (IPOD) mentee

Abram Harris Economics Society, Howard University, formerly President, Vice President, Public Relations Chair

The Liberator, Howard University, formerly Executive Editor, Staff Writer, Managing Editor

Climate Change Club, Howard University, formerly Vice President

Omicron Delta Epsilon, Howard University, Spring 2020 Inductee

Recognitions

CoAS Honors Program graduate, Howard University Capstone Scholar, Howard University Donor Scholar, Thurgood Marshall College Fund Scholar, UC-HBCU Initiative alum, Howard University CoAS Dean's List, OΔE

Notes

References available on demand. Papers and corresponding files are available on ResearchGate.net, the Social Science Research Network, Google Scholar, et cetera